

I M A G I N E

2014 INDEPENDENT SECTOR NATIONAL CONFERENCE
NOVEMBER 16-18 SEATTLE WASHINGTON

You could attend the charitable sector's premier conference for free through the Independent Sector scholarship program!

From large foundations to local nonprofits and everything in between, the charitable sector is comprised of organizations of all sizes working to advance the common good.

This fall, the Independent Sector National Conference will bring leaders and professionals from across the entire sector to Seattle to imagine new ways to change the world – and it's important that you are there to share your voice!

Full conference scholarships are available to leaders and professionals at small and medium sized nonprofits who qualify. We encourage you to apply for a scholarship or share this opportunity with your colleagues and professional networks. IS membership is not required.

Apply for a scholarship today at independentsector.org/nc2014\_scholarships

Support the scholarship program

The availability of scholarships is determined by the generosity of local and national funders. To support opportunities for nonprofit leaders and professionals to attend the conference, contact Andrew Williams at andreww@independentsector.org.

To register for the conference today, visit ISimagines2014.com.

Early bird pricing saves up to $1,000 and is in effect until June 15.